NOV 1959

On behalf of Mr. Dulles, I should like to acknowledge and thank you for your letter dated 3 October 1959.

Let me say at the outset that it was kind of you to offer your services once again to the United States Government and we appreciate your thoughtful gesture. Because of your helpful service to the Government in the past, we have been looking into the possibilities of re-employing you. Unfortunately, we find that no suitable openings exist at the present time and we are therefore unable to accept your good offer of assistance. However, should there be a future need for personnel with your qualifications and experience, you may be sure that you will receive every consideration by this office.

On behalf of the Director, I wish to take this opportunity to welcome you to the United States and to wish you every success in the future.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Assistant to the Director
